While academically challenging, the experienced ESL Summer School faculty provide a positive and caring atmosphere in which the students can learn, clearly understand the work and achieve success. Not only is confidence and self-esteem ensured, the students may earn a credit providing all learning expectations are met. The Mentor College ESL Summer School builds a strong foundation for future learning, strengthens existing English ability and allows a newcomer to feel at home in a new environment.

Unless the Grade or Level is already pre-determined from the full-time ESL Program, all students are asked to write an English Proficiency Test which will help determine which course a student will benefit from most. The Mentor College English as a Second Language Summer School offers integrated speaking, listening, reading and writing.

By taking our classes, students will be able to:

- Learn/improve basic grammar and sentence structure.
- Learn/improve effective essay writing skills.
- Learn/improve critical analysis skills.
- Expand conversational skills.

Course Descriptions:
*A minimum of five students is required for a course to be offered

Introductory English Skills Development for ESL Learners
*5-Week Program: June 26th, 2014 – July 31st, 2014
*3-Week Program: July 10th, 2014 – July 31st, 2014
This *Non-Credit Course is designed for students who have some or very little previous knowledge of English and focuses on building on existing knowledge of speaking, listening, reading and writing skills. Students will identify and use a variety of literacy skills and strategies to improve reading, writing, and oral communication in everyday contexts. It also emphasizes learning skills and provides strategies that will help new ESL learners gain the necessary skills in order to be prepared and successful in high school. If the school determines that the student’s language proficiency is at grade level, the student may be offered admission to ENG1D in September.

ENG1D - Grade Nine English
This course is designed to develop the oral communication, reading, writing, and media literacy skills that students need for success in their secondary school academic programs and in their daily lives. Students will analyze literary texts from contemporary and historical periods, interpret informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written, and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on the use of strategies that contribute to effective communication. The course is intended to prepare students for the Grade 10 academic English course, which leads to university or college preparation courses in Grades 11 and 12.
Prerequisite: None

ENG2D - Grade Ten English
This course is designed to extend the range of oral communication, reading, writing, and media literacy skills that students need for success in their secondary school academic programs and in their daily lives. Students will analyze literary texts from contemporary and historical periods, interpret and evaluate informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written, and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on the selective use of strategies that contribute to effective communication. This course is intended to prepare students for the compulsory Grade 11 university or college preparation course.
Prerequisite: Grade 9 English, Academic or Applied

ENG3U - Grade Eleven English
This course emphasizes the development of literacy, communication, and critical and creative thinking skills necessary for success in academic and daily life. Students will analyze challenging literary texts from various periods, countries, and cultures, as well as a range of informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written, and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on using language with precision and clarity and incorporating stylistic devices appropriately and effectively. The course is intended to prepare students for the compulsory Grade 12 university or college preparation course.
